Epstein's Arrest: Rothschild vs Trump

by sarz

From the editor: This case has foreign policy implications for the US given the potential for blackmail of prominent Americans who flew on the 'Lolita Express' or otherwise associated with Epstein -- likely a Mossad asset.

Rothschild vs Trump. Will the new entry in the updated Jewish bible be Book of Trump or Book of Rothschild? The Adelsons are praying for the Book of Trump.

"Would it be too much to pray for a day when the Bible gets a 'Book of Trump', much like it has a 'Book of Esther' celebrating the deliverance of the Jews from ancient Persia?" [Miriam] Adelson asked. (Jerusalem Post)

While some who should know better, such as Philip

Weiss, have taken the chief influence of the Adelsons over Trump to be the power of the shekel, probably Trump's main driver is his urge to be a Jewish hero of biblical proportions. The Adelsons have not bought him. They revere him. Heritage Americans, the Deplorables, are not even on the page.

It makes one's understanding of Trump much less of a puzzle if one sees him as a crypto-Jew and, by the very means of that disguise, a big big-shot of the Jews--like his father, Frederick CHRIST Trump Sr. The evidence in brief: Frederick Christ Trump Jr, Donald's elder brother who drank himself to death at an early age, joined a Jewish fraternity at Lehigh University, Sigma Alpha Mu, and told his fellow Sammies that, despite the name, his father was actually a German Jew. Some of those Sammies told the New York Times about it, as we learn from the Times background report on the new president concerning his late brother. Wikipedia mentions that the father, despite the outward goyishness was widely taken to be a Jew because of his large benefactions to Jewish religious education in Israel and his wide support of Jewish charities. Both husband and wife died in Jewish nursing homes. This sounds like a would-be macher (yiddish for big mover and shaker) crypto-Jew.

To what end the deception? Some sort of service to Jews that would be better done in goy-guise. Such as heading a manifestly anti-Jewish organization, such as the KKK, as several other crypto-Jews have done. During the campaign an NYT clipping from the 20s surfaced for a day, and was then quickly dropped by the supposedly hostile Jewish-controlled media. Frederick Trump, the head of the Bayside KKK, had been arrested in a riot. A Jew so dedicated to his tribe would marry a Jew or have his wife convert (as did Lord Rothschild's mother). The Trump family documentation has been fiddled with, as one would expect from the "Christ" middle name. Trump's mother's records have been so muddied that some accounts lead to the inference that she was her own mother. Two of Trump's wives and possibly all three are Jews. Four of Trump's children and possibly all five were born Jews, and all the adult ones have Jewish partners. Most notable is Ivanka, who pretended to convert to marry Kushner--to keep heritage Americans fooled about Trump.

The father's klansman is the son's deplorable.

Trump is far from the only cryptic Jew in American politics. The Roosevelts and the Bushes don't count. Those are melting-pot secular Americans. No crypsis there, really. But Lyndon Johnson is a definite case, as Salvador Astucia points out in his Opium lords: Israel, the Golden Triangle, and the Kennedy assassination. That circumstance was of political consequence. Otherwise, Israel would not have with impunity attacked the USS Liberty and killed thirty four Americans. Another American politician under crypsis, as I argue below, is Nancy Pelosi, two heartbeats away from the presidency. Her political stance would be quite different if she were not passing for Catholic.

That Trump is a Jew in disguise who intensely identifies with that role clarifies otherwise puzzling policies. From day one Trump has done all he can for Jews, be it the Goldman Sachs appointments or war, kinetic or via sanctions, on Syria, Hezbollah and Iran. Meantime, the Wall is nowhere to be seen. It's not five-dimensional chess. It's the work of someone who intensely identifies as a Jew and pretends to be a heritage American while continuing his family tradition of service to Jews through crypsis.

Being a Jew big-shot in crypsis would be rather pointless if it were not appreciated by like-minded Jews. How to win their admiration without giving the game away to goys. You can't tell who might be looking over your shoulder in this digital age. Well, you can have it both ways. With deniability. The (Jewish Daily) Forward, shared with its intended audience the delicious news that the new president is one of theirs by telling of brother Freddy's confession to his frat brothers that his father was actually a (top of the old Jewish pecking order) German Jew. The Forward immediately follows this with the bald assertion, "Trump Sr. and Trump Jr., who share the middle name Christ, are not Jewish," and goes on to say they had a lotta laughs about the middle name. Nice. Even better is the elaborate cake confected in the Donald's honor by one Wayne Root a New York TV producer and host, who loves skating on thin icing. He begins with, "Did we just elect our first Jewish president?" and after many a tasty layer concludes, in bold, with, "Trust me, by almost every possible measurement, we've just elected our first Jewish president." Wonderful. Root has it both ways, affirming while denying, all the way down. Double-talk, thy name is Root! It's recognition like this, from his people, that makes it all worthwhile for the Donald. It keeps him raring to obliterate Iran.

Ultra-Zionism is now, I foresee, turning out to be Trump's undoing. To be the biggest macher in Jew history Trump is doing everything he can think of for Israel. The embassy move. Golan. The Deal of the Century. Threats of sanctions against the whole world. And he's working at the obliteration of Iran.

From the beginning of his campaign Trump has aimed for the destruction of Israel's main remaining enemy, Iran, and the road he has chosen is opposition to the nuclear treaty with that country. The Rothschilds, through their Economist mouthpiece, have repeatedly strenuously opposed Trump scrapping the accord. What they feared has now come to pass and they are really, really annoyed. There is a battle shaping up that pits globalist finance against Likudnik Zionism.

Funny how Lord R's son was once dating the Trump bimbo. It's no coincidence the viral bimbo-snub was by Rothschild servitors Lagarde, May, Macron and Trudeau.

Here's another thrust from R:

Britain's man in the the US says Trump is 'inept': Leaked secret cables from ambassador say the President is 'uniquely dysfunctional and his career could end in disgrace'.

Leaked. Oh dear. And it just happens that the R-tentacle in DC (now resigned) foresees disgrace. Wonder if that goes beyond pussy grabbing. Must do--that much Trump has already withstood. Epstein has just been arrested. Trump is known to have traveled on the Lolita Express at least once, and fourteen of his personal phone numbers are listed in Epstein's directory. That's the least of it. What about leaked 'Mossad' films? Katie J says it was all openly being filmed. It was part of the excitement.

Epstein is a Potemkin 'billionaire'. There is no credible normal accounting for his apparent wealth, of which the source and amount are both suspect. So his child sex (and child sacrifice?) retreats are most likely a 'Mossad' blackmail operation--or, for insiders, a means of generating mutual trust through mutual blackmailability. Could this arrest be the Rothschilds sacrificing Epstein, a major resource? Some days before the arrest a federal appeals court in Florida ordered the unsealing of 2000 pages of documents pertaining to his case. Epstein could have scooted to Israel where state policy forbids the extradition of Jews, but he continued to hover about the scenes of his ugly crimes. Did he think he was invulnerable--or is it his job is to confess and take Trump down with him in a plea bargain?

How could Mossad be used against an American president for being too aggressive on behalf of Israel? Hitler expressed in his memoirs the view that behind the Zionist wish for a Jewish homeland the real aim was conferring sovereign immunity on a criminal tribe. There are those who say that Israel's Mossad is actually a private army at the disposal of the Rothschilds, meaning that in a contest of wills between the Rothschilds and the Israeli government, the private Rothschilds would command Mossad loyalty. The head of the Rothschild clan was after all the private individual to whom the Balfour declaration was addressed. Mossad predates Israel. Would the Rothschilds and the other mega Jews associated with them give up their private army to state control by Israeli politicians or would they insist on keeping control, with the benefit of the mask of sovereign immunity?

There have been indications of certain functions getting hived off from Mossad and set up under an Israeli ministry. The famous troll farm in Herzliya, Mossad headquarters, was reportedly brought under the Ministry of Strategic Affairs. Perhaps that explains a curious occurrence. The comments section of the ZeroHedge article announcing the arrest of Epstein was inundated by two armies of known Judaic trolls doxxing one another, presumably those of Israel's Ministry of Strategic Affairs facing off against those of Mossad.

In a way, it does not matter whether or not Epstein is a Mossad operative. If the Mossad is under Israeli state control, the Rothschilds have something else. Now that much of the world's wealth is revealed by computer analysis to be under a tight central authority, it stands to reason that there are state-sized bureaucracies beyond our gaze. We do know that the Rothschild family was personally involved with setting up Epstein's activities. It is natural to suppose that he is primarily their creature, and not that of the Israeli state.

His [Dershowitz's] social profile began to improve in 1996 upon meeting the financier Jeffrey Epstein through Lynn Forester de Rothschild, a Martha's Vineyard friend. She told him Epstein was a brilliant autodidact who loved meeting interesting people.

Trump is on record saying to New York magazine in 2002:

I've known Jeff for fifteen years. Terrific guy, He's a lot of fun to be with. It is even said that he likes beautiful women as much as I do, and many of them are on the younger side.

Two thousand pages of Epstein documents have been ordered to be unsealed. We will soon know if Trump's name figures damningly in the unsealed documents.

Trump said on being asked about the arrest that he did not know anything about it. The arrest seems not to have been on the initiative of his department of justice. It was an autonomous act by prosecutors of the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York, which has the reputation of "having its own foreign policy." They have considerable autonomy from the justice department, but, as their refusal to do their duty re 9/11 indicates, they seem to answer to some external force.

Trump rewarded well the Florida federal attorney who had got Epstein the sweetheart deal of the century for his multiple counts of pedophile rape. Trump made Acosta his secretary of labor. Recently, Trump's administration refused to follow the court order against that sweetheart deal:

His arrest, first reported by the Daily Beast, comes nearly two weeks after the Justice Department announced that it would not throw out his 2008 non-prosecution agreement, even though a federal judge ruled it was illegal.

Trump has been solidly with Epstein. The initiative for taking Epstein down came from elsewhere.

Christine Pelosi in a tweet laments that certain 'faves' are about to get taken down in the Epstein affair, though she sees it as all for the ultimate good. Christine, a political player in her own right, is Nancy Pelosi's daughter. Fathered by a Jew and married to a Jew, she is also halachically Jewish, though one is not supposed to think that. Her famous mother, who passes for Catholic, is from a Jewish Argentine family, Dalesandro. Like her parents (and daughter) Nancy is under crypsis. Nancy certainly looks Jewish and you can't look more Jewish than CHRISTine. (The major exposé of Nancy's identity was by judicial-inc.biz whose webmaster, before his website went silent, had complained that he was being threatened by the ADL. In those days the directories of Latin American Jewish names listed Dalesandro. The name has since been scrubbed.)

Big Jews are divided in a family quarrel. Nancy Pelosi and her daughter are main agents of the Rothschild/Rockefeller/globalist faction as opposed to the Adelson/Trump/nationalist/Likudnik-Zionist side. That Nancy allegedly has for decades harbored a Chinese spy in her office is no coincidence.

Christine's faves are surely Big Jews and their main servitors such as the Clintons. Faves are on both sides of the divide. They are all Zionists in the larger sense, supporters of the quest for Jew-dominated world empire. For the really big Big Jews Israel itself is but a step to the real goal, of world domination through money power. (In their bible God promises Jews world domination, and sanctions their use of usury against other peoples.) World domination through money power is dearer than the Likudnik hold over Palestine. Indeed, the colony there is getting to be more and more a liability and increasingly less a cherished focus of identity.

Nancy Pelosi demanded Acosta's resignation, for his "unconscionable agreement" with Epstein. Yet she would not consider impeaching him. It was up to Trump to do it, she said. It's his cabinet. And Acosta resigned.

Nor is it her responsibility to impeach Trump for rape, she says, even though she respects the case made by a journalist who says Trump raped her.

It's generally understood that Pelosi doesn't want to aid Trump's next campaign by arousing sympathy for him as unfairly besieged. Maybe. Or maybe it's a ripe fruit that's about to fall into her lap, so why be accused of picking it?

If Trump is brought crashing down by the Epstein case, there will be but a small obstacle keeping Nancy from being POTUS. Since rumors linking Pence to pedophilia are so persistent, who knows, maybe two high definition videos on the internet, not just one, will do the trick.

A new crypto-Jew POTUS will take over from the old one. Gracefully, without reaching.

Some of Christine Pelosi's faves have to go. If Trump is going, surely Christine knows.

Xymphora is dead wrong about the Epstein arrest being on behalf of Israel. It is of course against Trump, but it is not "Khazar anger at Trump's failure to attack Iran." It is Rothschild anger at crypto-Jew Trump for his foolhardy policy of seeking to obliterate Iran for Likudnik Israel despite the threat to the entire dark pool of Judaic capital through the implosion of nearly a quadrillion dollars of derivatives when the price of oil rises past the breaking point.

Trump's America has spent a fortune on developing "usable" nukes for the purpose. Putin has made two pertinent statements, one in his state of the nation address of 2018, and one through his close friend and national security advisor Patrushev. The first is:

I believe it [is] my duty to say this: any use of nuclear weapons of any yield--small, medium or whatever--against Russia or its allies will be regarded as a nuclear attack against our country. Retaliation will be instant with all the ensuing consequences.

The second, delivered in Israel to a much-ballyhooed tripartite conference of Russia, America and Israel is:

Iran has been and will be an ally and partner of ours, with which we have [been] gradually developing ties for quite some time, both bilaterally and multilaterally."

The Jerusalem Post gets the idea. The headline is:

RUSSIA SWEARS IRAN IS ITS ALLY, AFTER TRILATERAL MEETING WITH PM, BOLTON

As Bernhard of Moon of Alabama points out, Iran holds the upper hand. With its back against the wall, it will not back down unless Trump undoes the damage wrought by the sanctions and the breaking of the nuke deal. Iran will drive the price of oil up to two hundred dollars and above, imploding the global economy, and there's nothing Trump can do about it.

...Well, not nothing. He's an impulsive oaf and he could go ahead and sink the global economy or even destroy the planet.

That's why a number of faves have got to be sacrificed.

Look to Trump getting media-hammered with disgrace.

And look to Rothschild's main agent, Soros, a recent convert to the anti-war cause, coming, along with others of his kind, to the support of Tulsi Gabbard.

It's worth remembering that among the early Zionists, along with the Rothschilds, were idealists who envisioned a final coming together of Ashkenazis with their brothers the Palestinians, a people genetically identical to Yemeni Jews, the last surviving fragment of the original Abrahamic Hebrews. Since the Rothschilds are rethinking basics, one can even imagine a one man one vote solution to Palestine.

Trump won the mantle of great white hope through deception. Now that he's being attacked by a focused array of power he cannot counter, and with Big Jewry weakened by division, dare we hope for better times?

[An earlier version mistakenly took a brief conversation between Hannity and Trump regarding Bill Clinton and Epstein to be a response to the impending arrest. It was actually from the 2015 presidential campaign.]
